1. A tribunal has been established by Rumanian Government order to deal exclusively with cases involving Ministers and those occupying administrative positions in the government service. The verdicts of this court are definite and no appeal to a higher court will be permitted. This measure is said to be a prelude to extensive purges ordered by Moscow such as have already taken place in Hungary and Bulgaria.
2. In addition to this tribunal, a special judicial section has been established to deal with cases of sabotage to railroad installations exclusively. Of late, derailments and sabotage of railroads have been increasing.
